Obituary

A busy life came to a close early Sunday morning, September 9, 1990 in Boston, Mass. Annie Mae Grant Flanders was called to her heavenly home.

She was born in Bulloch County, Statesboro, Georgia on December 23, 1927 to the late Levetta Grant.

In her youth, she joined the Rose Hill Baptist Church. After moving to Boston, Mass. she became an active member of the Holy Temple Holiness Church of God. She attended the public schools in Bulloch County at the Bethlehem and New Sandridge Schools.

After moving to Boston, she worked in the medical profession for many years and retired for health reasons.

She was united in holy matrimony to Walter Flanders and to this union a daughter was born.

Mrs. Flanders leaves to cherish her memory a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Young of Boston, Mass.; two sisters, Mrs. Irene Wilson and Mrs. Carolyn Shipman, both of Statesboro, Ga.; a brother, Robert Lee Grant of Deerfield, Fla.; a grandson, Victor Young of Boston, Mass.; two aunts, Mrs. Pearl Kimble and Mrs. Mattie Geneva Grant, both of Statesboro, Ga.; a son-in-law, Johnny Young of Boston, Mass.; several nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

*She gave to us the best she had,
In love, wisdom, respect and pride.
To our lives the light of her life we add—
We shall use it for our guide.*

*She was never tired of doing her best,
Regardless of how great the task.
With a prayer and a smile she'd attempt her test,
And God would grant what she asked.*

*Now it comes our time for trial,
It's hard but fair; but she's gone her length,
We pray to God to give us strength;
Please, God, walk with us each mile.*

Perhaps you sent food or a spray
Or sat quietly in a chair
Perhaps you sent a card or gram
If so, it is here
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words
As any friend could say
Perhaps you were not there at all
Just thought of us today
Whatever you did to console our hearts
We thank you so much whatever your part.
